CIVIL SERVICE IS THE BIG QUESTION

Civil Service - The Big Question in Wilmington in these last nine days before the annual election on March 7th - is the big Yes or No question of Wilmington this week.

Reliable observers are not of the same opinion. One man well versed in town affairs is predicting that Civil Service will win, 55% to 45% on the first Saturday in March, while another, equally well versed, is predicting opposite results, with the same figures. Neither are directly involved in the controversy.

The Wilmington Town Employees Association Inc., organized shortly after Principal Assessor Stanley Webber was fired some months ago, voted Monday night to assess its members $5 each, for the coming fight. There are about 80 members in the organization, with Arthur B Harper, Wilmington Veterans Agent, as president.

It was the employees organization, two weeks ago, which released a thunderbolt upon the persons of the Town Manager and Selectmen when they succeeded in having the state legislature vote Chapter 30 of the Acts of 1964, ordering that the question of Civil Service be on the ballot for the annual election.

And while the employees are voting money for their part of the coming fight the Selectmen have voted to defray the mailing cost of a statement which has been printed and is on the town manager's desk out of their own pockets. The Selectmen have assessed themselves $15 each for the mailing of the statement, being afraid of possible repercussions if they should use town funds.

There is a split in the ranks of the Selectmen, with Mrs Wavie Drew and Rene LaRivee able to understand why the employees want Civil Service, and Nicholas De Felice and John Brooks on the opposite side of the fence.

Brooks has stated several times that 'No employee has ever been fired without a hearing' - a statement which the Town employees know to be not consistent with facts.

He, Mr De Felice and Mr Black attended an employees association meeting two weeks ago tonight, at which meeting Selectman Candidate Lloyd Bender was also present.

Brooks charged the employees with operating behind the backs of the selectmen, and not having any trust in their elected officials, a statement which was negated by President Harper, who told Brooks that the Selectmen had been notified by mail of the meeting at which the decision was made. Brooks' excuse for non-attendance on the part of any selectman was that there were 'too many meetings'.

Mr De Felice, in the same meeting, added fuel to the fire by asserting that he would fire Stanley Webber again 'If I had to do it all over again!'

He would neither affirm nor deny a question put to him as to whether or not he had said that everyone in the Town Hall should be fired and High School girls hired instead.

It was Mr Webber's firing with out a hearing that triggered the action on the part of the town employees, although they are not seeking to put the Principal Assessor's position, and some other town hall and library positions under civil service.

About 60 positions are involved. If Civil Service is voted in, then other employees can also be made a part of the service without other town vote. At the present time the members of the Police and Fire Departments are on Civil Service.

In the meeting of two weeks ago in the Legion Hall, the Selectmen missed their chance to assuage the feelings of the employees.

Chairman Charles Black, who was one of those who spoke, was more gentle than his two other companions. Brooks only added fuel to the flames of discontent by referring vaguely to 'A plan' which he said was 'on the Town Manager's desk' and then refusing to discuss it -- although the employees would have sat all night and listened.

Mr Brooks' word for the plan was 'streamlining'. It is possible that he was talking about a Compensation Plan which the Town Manager has been preparing for this year's Town Meeting vote. No reference has been made in the 'open' part of the Selectmen's meetings as to the existence of such a plan.

The Town Manager's Personnel Advisory Committee was subjected to criticism because Mr Brooks, while serving as a Selectman was also serving on the committee, and also because the committee was never available to the people who work for the town. The criticism put Mr Brooks in the odd position of obliquely attacking the Town Manager plan, and indirectly also led to the resignation of Paul Duggan of Harvard Street from the committee.

Mr Duggan announced his resignation during the employee's meeting, but as of last night there was still no knowledge of his resignation. (Cont. Pg. 7)

JOSEPH BEATON NAMED SOCIAL STUDIES HEAD

Joseph Beaton, a Social Studies teacher in Wilmington High School was named to the post of Head of the Social Studies Department by the School Committee, last night. He will assume his new duties next September.

The vote was by written ballot, and was unanimous.

A resident of King Street, and a major in the US Army Reserve, Mr Beaton has been teaching in the public schools of Wilmington since 1951. He was one of six candidates for the post.

The committee also voted to buy two new alto horns for the High School Band, and to approve of a High School Varsity Hockey team, effective next School Year. $2100 was voted for uniforms, hockey rink hire, etc.

Roger Breakey of Middlesex Ave was granted a sick leave, in order that he may have an immediate operation in the Winchester Hospital, for a back injury suffered last Christmas in an auto accident.

Mr Breakey, one of the key teachers in the Science Department has been told by his physician that an immediate operation is needed. He had been hoping to delay it until next summer.

The school board voted to allow him a $15 a day pay for that time beyond his sick leave, up to six weeks of absence, because of his offer to assist in any way possible even though invalided. He has a total of sixteen days of sick leave accumulated.

Cigarette Smoking

Cigarette smoking by high school youngsters came in for a lot of conversation, mostly because of a letter received from a North Wilmington resident, William Beers of Truman Road.

Mr Beers reported a lot of smo-turned out to be strictly non-controversial, and that is the proposal for group life insurance for town employees (Article 23).

The Wilmington Town Employees Association has been told by the Town Treasurer of Burlington (an able individual) that it would cost the town about $27,000 a year, and that practically every town in Middlesex County has this type of protection for its employees.

The proposal has received the endorsement of Selectman Charles Black, who, before his retirement spent 40 years as Insurance Advisor for the firm of Stone & Webster.

The plan is of the Blue Cross - Blue Shield type and it seems that the employees are not now so covered.

EXECUTIVE MEETINGS

Three meetings, this week, are worthy of comment because of the Open Meeting Law of Massachusetts.

The Wilmington Planning Board, meeting Tuesday night, voted for Open Meetings, strictly controlled, during their discussions of the zoning articles for the coming Town Meeting. The vote was unanimous. In former years, when discussions of zoning (after the public hearings) were held, it would be in executive session, which was not used for any other purpose.

The Boston City Council, Monday night, held an executive meeting, which fact was reported on Page four of the Tuesday Morning Globe. It was, the Globe said, the 'only' executive meeting of the Council in the memory of living man.

The Wilmington Board of Selectmen, Monday night, ran their usual course of meetings, but with an added bit of sauce.

The 'whispering' (open) session was held from 8 pm to 8:29 pm. Then came the 'regular' executive session (held every week) which lasted until 9:45 pm.
Then, after the other Selectmen had gone home, Selectmen Brooks and De Felice held another executive session with Mr Skantz of Strout Avenue, which lasted until 11 pm.

WHOEVER HEARD OF THE LIBRARY?

In all the discussion of the proposed Civil Service Law, neither the town employees nor the Selectmen have spoken up once to mention the fact that there are employees in the Wilmington Public Library.

Maybe there isn't any such place.

THE POLICE REPORT

Because of time limitations the Town Crier is unable this week to present an adequate report on the 'Police Report' released this week by Town Manager Gerald Bouchard.

Three copies of the report have been placed in the Public Library by TM Bouchard.

Very briefly, the report crucifies - and there is no other word - Chief of Police Paul Lynch.
Mr Lynch is the head of the department. He is not treated kindly in the report.

There is much good to be derived from such a reort, and there can also be harm, if it is taken in the wrong way. Much of the report is obviously 'boilerplate' - material prepared as a criticism of any police department. Even then there is value.

If the report is taken in a constructive way it can prove to be of lasting value to the town of Wilmington.

At the same time there are points that should not be accepted as being wholly or in some cases possibly partly true. These, of course, are to be in the minority.

Bouchard has said that he will appoint a board king in school buses, and warned that the town could possibly get into a lot of trouble because of it. He recommended disciplinary action in 'making th smokers walk to school' and 'let their parents cry'.

Although the School Board felt that Mr Beers had some very good points they found that it was impossible to take up some of his suggestions, because the school bus driver 'has to keep his eyes on the road' and for other reasons. They felt it unwise to allocate police powers to the bus drivers, and a suggestion from Glen Connolly that some parents could volunteer to ride in back, to stop cigarette smoking, also had its drawbacks.

Larry Cushing, Athletic Director, told the committee that he frequently rode the buses, but that 'no one smokes of course while I am there'.

High School Principal Bernard McMahon related an incident in which six girls had been caught in one of the girls toilets, all in the same cubicle and 'not using the plumbing for the purpose for which it was intended'. None of the girls he said, would admit to smoking, although 'there was smoke in the air'.

The penalty for smoking, Mr McMahon told the School Committee, is loss of bus transportation privileges, - five days for the first offense, ten for the second, and for the remainder of the school year for a third offense.

After a long discussion it was voted to ask Mr Beers to attend a school committee meeting, to further discuss the subject.

THREE BOARD OF APPEALS DECISIONS

Three variances were granted by the Wilmington Board of Appeals in the past week.

On February 12th the board announced that it had granted a variance to build a home on Columbia Street, to Robert E Shelley of Atlantic Avenue.

Mr Shelley, who owned a lot of land that extended from Columbia Street to Tremont Street, did not have sufficient width, according to the zoning laws, to build. He told the board that he was able to purchase 25 feet from an adjoining lot, but that this still left him with a shortage of 25 feet in width. No other land could be purchased.

The board granted the variance with the stipulation that all other portions of Section V-1 be followed, regarding set backs, etc. and that the home be so placed as to allow for a future garage and breezeway, if in the future such was desired.

On February 11th the board granted two variances to Marcus Greenstein of Swampscott and Jon H Graham of Burlington, on lots of land in the Burt Road area.

The two men had been heard in two separate cases, on January 21st, and had asked to aggregate a number of 25 foot wide lots into larger lots.

The board granted the appeal for three lots on Burt Road, one lot on Allen Place (formerly Oak Street) and 2 lots on Brimmer Ave (formerly Beech Court).

A provision was made that there shall be no later attempts to have any further subdivision of these lots by anyone.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF WILMINGTON

Before you vote on Article #23 may we just present a few facts and figures;

The firefighters of the Town of Wilmington work fifty six (56) hours per week. This is sixteen (16) hours more than the average work week of forty (40) hours.

Eight hundred and thirty-two (832) hours more per year or seventy (70) days more than the average.

An hourly wage of a maximum of one dollar and eighty eight cents ($1.88) per hour---sixty three cents ($.63) more than the minimum wage law of one dollar and twenty five cents ($1.25) per hour.

The average man on the fire dept. is married with two (2) or more children. He is compelled to live in the Town of Wilmington. Approximately 10% of his pay is absorbed in local taxes.

The Fire Dept. has been running short of men per shift for two (2) years or more. In the last two (2) years a man has retired because of illness due to service connections. Two (2) men have left for better jobs. It is hard to fill vacancies because of the pay scale. At the present time the Fire Dept. is running one (1) man short as there is no one eligible on the civil service qualifying list.

Under the raise the dept. is asking for---two (2) men after taking and passing the civil service exam (which incidentally takes up to nine (9) months will start at fifty five hundred dollars ($5,500.00) and after two (2) years will go to sixty three hundred dollars ($6,300.00). This is only raising the hourly wage to two dollars and seventeen cents ($2.17) per hour after two (2) years.

These men are protecting you and your property---Please give them a living wage, and keep your fire dept. filled with qualified personnel.

PLEASE VOTE YES FOR ARTICLE #23

CHANNEL 7 COMES

ALIVE AT HIGH NOON

Sunday, February 23rd, WNAC-TV in Boston will conjure up a moment of electronic magic calculated to make the image - or picture - on your TV screen, when you're tuned to Channel 7, clearer and sharper than ever you've seen it before.

Transmitting from its new triangular tower in Newton, Massachusetts, WNAC-TV will increase its viewing area considerably West and Southwest of the Greater Boston area.

WNAC-TV, Boston, will become the first television station in the entire United States to make use of a completely new transmission system to insure the home viewer reliable pictures at all times.

For the highest degree of telecasting service WNAC-TV is using not one but two separate 25 kilowatt transmitters operating dually. If anything happens to one, the ever-ready standby takes over immediately.

This dual system was developed by Harry B. Whittemore, Director of Corporate Engineering for RKO General, Inc., owners of WNAC-TV, in conjunction with engineers of the RCA Broadcast and Communications Products Division.

Before his promotion to this post, Whittemore for many years was Chief Engineer at WNAC-TV. His successor is Bernard P. Bohunicky who has spent the major part of the last six months at the Newton tower site, 45 Tower Road, working closely with RCA engineers on all phases of the construction operation.

T Day, Sunday, Feb. 23 will be commemorated by a special telecast featuring civic and religious leaders. WNAC-TV President William M. McCormick will flick the switch that activates the new video operation.

What do all these technical wonders mean to you the viewer? First and foremost, a better, clearer, sharper picture than ever before for a majority of viewers who already get Channel 7 well. Then there will be others who either could not tune in Channel 7 well, or at all, who will now be able to see both WNAC-TV local and national ABC-TV network programs for the first time.

The erection of WNAC-TV's tower in Newton means that all viewers can set their antennas or rabbit ears in the same direction as they do now for the other two Boston commercial channels. Many technicians and TV repair experts in the area are being informed of this by WNAC-TV's Engineering Department.

Improved and reliable pictures are a reality for such local Channel 7 favorites as the "David Allan Show", weekdays at 11:30 a.m.; Jack LaLanne, weekdays at 8:30 a.m. and Major Mudd, weekdays at 5:30 p.m. with the Three Stooges. WNAC-TV's News team of Palmer Payne at 6:15 p.m. on the Early News and Bill Whalen at 11 p.m. on the Late News and its meteorologists, Roland Boucher at 6:25 p.m. and Fred Ward at 11:10 p.m. will be clearer than ever, as will Haywood Vincent in his new program on alternate Sundays at 2:30 p.m.

The picture will be better, too, for Channel 7's 6:30 p.m. strip each Monday through Saturday with the amusing adventures of Dobie Gillis; for the 7 p.m. slot with "One Step Beyond" on Mondays, "Bilko" on Tuesdays, the "Littlest Hobo" on Wednesdays, those crazy "Fractured Flickers" on Thursdays, Friday's Movie Spectacular and "Rescue 8" on Saturdays.

Distaff fans of Bill Marlowe, host of "Hollywood's Greatest Stars" each weekday at 2:30 p.m. will have a better view of the famous profile.

VOTERS OF WILMINGTON

Fellow Residents:

One of the controversial items which will be voted on, in the Town Election, is the question of Civil Service for employees of the Town of Wilmington.

You have been told that no employee has ever been fired without a hearing.

Unfortunately this is not so. There have been cases where people were fired without justified cause, and without a hearing.

We do not care to discuss personalities, but this is a fact.

We ask that the people of Wilmington consider the facts. We are the bread winners for our families. We merely seek protection, - job security, and the right to a hearing if any of our employees are fired.

We do not seek to have you pay more. We do not seek to impose additional burdens on the town.

We are merely asking for justice.

Please support us, in the Town Election, and vote Yes on Civil Service!

Yours very truly,
Wilmington Town Employees Association Inc.

Political Adv.

CIVIL SERVICE
(From Fr. Pg)

tion in the Town Hall.

Selectman Candidate Lloyd C Bender, also present, stated for his part that it was the inaction and apparent disinterest on the part of the Board of Selectmen which had permitted 'the unhappy conditions to mushroom' and force the town employees to seek the protection of Civil Service.

'Because of the evasion of responsibility by the Board of Selectmen, it is now for the voters of the town to resolve the issue' Bender stated.

He told the employees that if the Civil Service issue were defeated at the polls he would try to have a Personnel Procedure Policy instituted that would be fair to the taxpayers and assure equitable treatment for all town employees.

Employees Edgy

The employees of the town are at the present time very much on edge as the result of the actions (planned or unplanned) of the Selectmen and Town Manager, and fear retaliatory measures on the part of those people.

An arrangement, agreed to by the Town Manager and Anton Thiel, Superintendent of the School Maintenance Department, early yesterday, has been misunderstood by employees.

Thiel, Wednesday morning, after an earlier discussion, was told by TM Bouchard that he would be retired from his present position, and reassigned a position as Carpenter without loss of pay in the near future. Thiel earns $6760 a year, and is due for retirement in about two years.

Bouchard does not have any person slated at the present time to take Thiel's place, nor has Thiel actually been reassigned from his Superintendent's position.

BLUEBIRDS VISITED ANGELL
MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Pocahontas Bluebirds last Tuesday had the adventure of a trip to the Angel Memorial Hospital in Boston, where they saw movies and heard an interesting talk on animals and animal care.

The girls toured the hospital and adoption wards. Each one donated old clean sheets or blankets for use in the hospital.

Also visited was the Museum of Fine Arts, before returning home, by subway and train, which was quite an experience in itself.

Taking part in the trip were Pauline Baker, Lou Ann Rice, Joanne Bradley, Mary Castaldo, Karen Gagnon, Janet Di Bella, Linda Childs, Barbara Zaverson, Gail Wagstaff and Gail Newcomb. They were accompanied by Mrs Joseph Zaverson, Mrs Charles Di Bella and Mrs William Childs, and help was given by Kent and Charles Zaverson and Susan Childs.
